

Please deny the petition of BellSouth asking the FCC to stop regulating broadband service. Granting the petition will stifle competition by driving out the independent internet service providers.